

Lester McGrone,) vs.) Movant,)
) No. 06-0305-CV-W-FJG
) Crim. No. 00-0094-01-CR-W-FJG
 United States of America,)

judgment of conviction became final on October 1, 2002. Movant did not file his § 22.55 motion until April 7, 2006, or more than three years after that date. For the aforesaid reason, this motion is barred by the one year limitation and must be denied.

The Court will not issue a certificate of appealability in this matter. A certificate of appealability will be issued only if petitioner makes a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right and has indicated which specific issue or issues satisfy the showing required has been made. 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2) and (3). Additionally, “the petitioner ‘must demonstrate that the issues are debatable among jurists of reason; that a court could resolve the issues [in a different manner]; or that the questions are adequate to deserve encouragement to proceed further.’” Randolf v. Kemna, 276 F.3d 401, 403 n.1 (8th Cir. 2002) (quoting Barefoot v. Estelle, 463 U.S. 880, 893 n.1 (1983)) (alteration in original). Although this may be referred to as a “modest standard,” id. (citing Charles v. Hickman, 228 F.3d 981, 982 n.1 (9th Cir. 2000)), movant has failed to meet this burden.

JUDGMENT

Upon review of movant’s 28 U.S.C. § 2255 motion (Doc. # 1) and the government’s response, the Court hereby denies movant’s request to vacate, set aside or correct the sentence herein. The Court believes the arguments set forth by the respondent present a thorough legal and factual analysis and adopts respondent’s analysis and conclusions as its own by reference hereto.

For the aforesaid reasons movant’s motion to vacate, set aside or correct his sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 (Doc. #1), filed April 7, 2006, is hereby denied. The Court further finds that the issues presented by movant are resolvable by the record and, therefore, no evidentiary hearing will be granted.
